

FILM-MAKER: What are you cooking?

MAN: Anything I can find.

FILM-MAKER: Can you tell me what happened here?

MAN: They came and destroyed everything.

FILM-MAKER: Who came?

MAN: Them (he points to a sketch on the wall depicting an alien type of being). They came in giant ships. At first we naively thought they were peaceful but we were soon proven wrong. We tried to fight back but they were too powerful. Few of us now remain.

FILM-MAKER: Can you tell me when you first saw them?

MAN: I was on patrol (we see the character as a soldier and scene is narrated as sequence is shown). I saw a bright light in the distance. It began to get closer, almost blinding. The next thing I new I woke up surrounded by rubble.

FILM-MAKER: Are there others?

MAN: Some. Scattered around.

FILM-MAKER: What are you going to do now?

MAN: Run, hide, survive.